

 KALAMAZOO
FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
"A Sanctuary in the City... Living Faith"

We may spend time and energy to do something positive to create a little peace, but the wind might blow it away. Or other people might destroy it—by accident or on purpose. But here's the great thing to remember—if your peace sign gets disturbed or destroyed, you can repair it. You can rebuild it. You can move the sticks back into place. You can rearrange the stones. And it's like that in real life as well. If the piece you build gets disturbed, you can rebuild it again and again and again. Each time you practice, it becomes easier and pretty soon you'll be an expert at making peace signs—and at making peace in the world.

~ John Noltner

OCTOBER 5, 2025, SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

THE GATHERING

Wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome here—with whatever joys, questions, or tears you bring today—as we worship God, who welcomes us all! You are invited to listen for God's Spirit speaking to you through the music of the Prelude as we prepare our hearts for worship.

Bold type indicates congregational response.

Where there is an asterisk, we are invited to stand together in God's Spirit.

CALL TO WORSHIP

God's steadfast love endures forever, and God's faithfulness to all generations.
Let us worship God.

* DOXOLOGY #607 Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow Old Hundredth
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise Christ, all creatures here below;
praise Holy Spirit evermore;
praise Triune God, whom we adore. Amen

* OPENING RESPONSES

God calls us from the ends of the earth and the center of our lives.
God calls us to yearn for communion and to pray for peace!
Peace be upon everyone who comes in joy or in need, to offer prayer and praise!
Amidst trouble and anxiety in our world, God, astound us with glimpses of hope, and send us to seek and serve the commonwealth of your love for all creation.

* HYMN 756 O God of Every Nation Llanglofan

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

from the Philippines (adapted)

God forgive us, for we are fragmented persons. We go many directions at once.
We seek opposite goals and serve contradictory purposes.
We mouth liberation, but we shun, shame and support oppression.
We proclaim peace, but we practice hostility and violence.
We shout for justice, but we walk in bias and prejudice.
We preach love, but we harbor anger and even hate.
Through your compassion have mercy on us and make us whole.
Help us discern your voice among all the dissonant and discordant echoes we hear.

Prayer continues in silence.

KYRIE #430

Remember Not, O God

Southwell

Cantor Remember not, O God, the sins of long ago;
in tender mercy visit us, distressed and humble low.

All Then, safe within your fold, we will exalt your name;
our thankful hearts with songs of joy your goodness will proclaim.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS AND PEACE from A Brief Statement of Faith

God created the world good, and calls us all to live as one community. In sovereign love, God raised Jesus, breaking the power of sin and evil. Loving us still, God redeems us and all creation—freed to accept ourselves, and bound together in the body of Christ.

We belong to God. With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

In a broken and fearful world, God's Spirit feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation. In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive with courage to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace. May the peace of Christ be with you!

And also with you!

Please stand and take a moment to share Christ's peace with others.

* GLORIA #583 (sung twice)

Taizé

Gloria, gloria, in excelsis Deo!

Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!

Amid the cacophony of our generation, speak your eternal Word to inspire and guide.

So may we follow the way of Christ into the heavenly peace you want for all life.

Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

The table is now made ready ... The Lord be with you,
and also with you.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you, dear God, with joyful hearts lifted high ... Gratefully we join our hearts and voices with your faithful throughout earth, in heaven, and of every time and place who sing to the glory of your name:

SANCTUS 572

Come among us now, O God in Christ ... Empower us to share your life with the world, loving and serving in the way you teach us to pray together:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, now and forever. Amen.

NOODLING AT NOON

Tuesdays in the Library: We are centering in Bill McKibben's book, The Flag, the Cross, and the Station Wagon. In this revelatory cry of the heart, McKibben digs deep into our history (and his own well-meaning but not all-seeing past)--race and inequality in America, the rise of the religious right, and our environmental crisis. He finds that he is not without hope. The book should be available at your favorite local or online retailer. NO NOODLING ON OCTOBER 7th.

PRAYER PARTNERS

At 9:00 a.m. on the second Sunday of each month, members of the congregation gather for prayer for the church, the community, and the world. Room 301.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS!

Married for 55 years, Edward and Joyce Artman recently returned to Michigan from Arizona. In AZ, they were active in their church and served others through hospital volunteering and preparing meals for the hungry and unhoused. We're grateful to have them with us!

A returning member of FPC, Janet Lawing sang soprano solos for years under Tom Kasdorf's direction and pitched for the women's softball team. She still enjoys singing, along with reading and walking. We're delighted to welcome her back!

Originally from South Dakota, Marilyn Loken lived in three states before retiring to Michigan. A former teacher and adoption social worker, she also taught Sunday School and volunteered with Habitat for Humanity. These days, she enjoys needlework, crafting, and quilting. We can't wait to see some of your creations!

Diane Talo is an educator, lifelong learner, and singer who enjoys travel and theater. At her former church, she taught Faith Formation and has also served as a foster parent. We're grateful to have her with us!

We're delighted to welcome Phyllis Wilson back to FPCK! Phyllis was a faithful member from August 1992 until her move to Chicago in 2000. She served as a deacon and worked at Bronson Hospital for 23 years. It's a joy to have her with us again!

If you need assistance with this, you can reach out to Dawn in the office at extension 209.

Hearing Assistance Available:

FPC's Sanctuary and Pine Island Chapel are equipped with a Hearing Loop system. If your hearing aids have a T-coil (telecoil), you can connect directly to the sound system—check your manual or audiologist for activation help. Need a volume boost? Visit the sound booth to borrow headphones that link to the loop.

Freedom and justice cannot be parceled out in pieces to suit political convenience. I don't believe you can stand for freedom for one group of people and deny it to others.” - Coretta Scott King

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Every Tuesday at 7 a.m. in the Archives (Room 207). Returning and new faces welcome for coffee, donuts, and conversation to begin the day!

FPC'S RACIAL EQUITY POLICY CLASS

October 19 at 11:30 a.m.—Room 306

The PC(USA) Book of Order requires that all councils of the church have a policy on anti-racism. What is in the policy our Session recently passed, and how can we live into it?

PRAYING IN COLOR

Borrowed from Sybil MacBeth's book by the same name, praying in color is adaptable to all kinds of prayer and meditation. No art or prayer skills are necessary. Some ways a willing mind and open heart can use this concept:

- Start doodling about a line of Scripture, a hymn or poem.
- Let gratitude for specific joys, big and small, guide your hand to name and color those joys.
- Doodle with no agenda—turn off your words and practice moving into listening mode.
- Write the names of people you're praying for to initiate doodling.
