

OUTREACH DOWNTOWN LITERACY CENTER

The Downtown Community Literacy Center opened its doors at First Presbyterian Church in April of 2014. Tutoring for adults is provided in reading, writing, and computer skills by church members. Tutors are always needed and appreciated. Training is done through the Kalamazoo Literacy Center.

Current Needs

Volunteers to meet with adult learners for one-one-one tutoring.
Volunteers should:

- Feel comfortable communicating with adult learners
- Participate in 14 hours of training by Kalamazoo Literacy Center
- Commit to a minimum of one year of service
- Meet with learner in person or online at least once a week at a time convenient for both
- Provide monthly updates on learner's progress

Training/Mentoring/Support: The Center offers hybrid training, so you can choose to train in person or online.
